

Request to Participate in Computer-Based Testing
For February 2009 Bar Examination

I am interested in participating in computer-based testing (CBT) for the February 2009 Bar Examination. If chosen to participate in the program, I will provide my own laptop for the examination. In addition, I will timely complete the registration process, including the payment of the $115.50 registration fee, and all other procedures (including the mock test) required by ExamSoft Worldwide, Inc., the software provider which has been selected for laptop testing for the February 2009 Bar Examination. I am aware that the software may not be used with personal computer (PC) emulation software. The minimum system requirements are as follows:

CPU = 1 GHz Pentium III or industry equivalent

RAM = 1GB

Drives = 50 MB of free space

Operating System = 32-bit Versions of Windows XP or Vista and 64-bit Versions of Windows Vista

Software = Internet Explorer 6.0 or greater

Internet Access for SofTest Installation, Exam Download and Upload

AOL Users – Version 6.0 or higher required

Minimum Screen Resolution = 1024 x 768 or higher

USB port

Microsoft Office 2000 Users:

Although you are not required to have a copy of Microsoft Office installed to use SofTest, if you are running Microsoft Office 2000, you must have Microsoft's SR-1a Service Pack installed. You can download the Service Pack through the following Microsoft link: Office 2000 Service Pack.

Vista Users:

Your computer must meet the minimum requirements for the specific edition of Vista you are using. Check the documentation that came with Vista to find these requirements.

Apple Macintosh Users:

Users with Apple's Mac OS X v. 10.4.4 (Tiger) or Mac OS X v. 10.5 (Leopard) laptops can run SofTest in Windows XP or Vista installed via Apple's Boot Camp.

I understand that if I encounter hardware or software failures or other technical difficulties while taking the bar examination, no additional time will be given. If the technical difficulties cannot be resolved or are not resolved, I will continue the essay examination by handwriting. I understand that, in such cases, the Board of Law Examiners will use reasonable efforts to recover what had been saved on the laptop, but will not give credit or make accommodations for any portion of the answer(s) that cannot be recovered regardless of the reason for the technical difficulty. I accept all risk of loss of my examination answers saved on the computer.

I accept the conditions the Supreme Court of South Carolina has specified for use of laptop computers. I will hold harmless the Board of Law Examiners, the Supreme Court of South Carolina, and ExamSoft Worldwide, Inc., and each of their employees, agents, and contract assistants (including the proctors and all technical assistants) for any and all computer and software malfunctions or other technical difficulties, regardless of the reason, relating to my use or attempted use of a laptop computer in connection with the South Carolina Bar Examination and will indemnify these entities against any and all costs, damages, and fees resulting from any claim filed by me against third parties.
